*Community Encouraged to AttendFor Immediate Release – October 10, 2024

ANNVILLE, Pa. – U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA) Indiantown Gap National Cemetery (IGNC) announced it will host its 42th annual Veterans Day Program on Sunday, November 10, 2024, at 2 p.m. rain or shine. Attendees are encouraged to dress appropriately for the weather. This year's program is cosponsored by the Indiantown Gap National Cemetery Memorial Council and the Military Order of the Purple Heart, Department of Pennsylvania.

John Spruyt, director of IGNC, will welcome the audience. Military Order of the Purple Heart, Department of Pennsylvania, Finance Officer, Nate Thomson will deliver the keynote address. Joseph Snyder, Memorial Council Vice President, will serve as the master of ceremonies.

Parking will be at MSC Industrial Supply Company, 100 MSC Drive, Jonestown, located just east of Fort Indiantown Gap. There will be shuttle bus transportation to and from the PA Veterans Memorial. If you are entering from the west, the detour around Fort Indiantown Gap is on Biddle Drive then Quartermaster Road and back to Fisher Avenue. There will be limited handicapped parking at the Cemetery itself.

The Avenue of Flags display on the Cemetery will be flown through Veterans Day Week. The Avenue of Flags is made up of casket flags that have been donated by Veterans' families. State, territories, and service flags will also be flown. Flag donations can be dropped off prior to the program.
