VA's Indiantown Gap National Cemetery to Observe Veterans Day

Community Encouraged to Attend

For Immediate Release – October 20, 2026

ANNVILLE, Pa. – U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA) Indiantown Gap National Cemetery (IGNC) announced it will host its 44th annual Veterans Day Program on Sunday, November 8, 2026, at 2 p.m. rain or shine. Attendees are encouraged to dress appropriately for the weather. This year's program is cosponsored by the Indiantown Gap National Cemetery Memorial Council and the National Camp Patriotic Order of Sons of America.

John Spruyt, director of IGNC, will welcome the audience. The keynote speaker will be CW2 William E. Tobin USA (Ret). Robert J. DeSousa, IGNC Memorial Council, will serve as the master of ceremonies.

Parking will be at MSC Industrial Supply Company, 100 MSC Drive, Jonestown. It is located just east of Fort Indiantown Gap. There will be shuttle bus transportation to and from the Pennsylvania Veterans Memorial at the cemetery. If you enter from the west, the detour around Fort Indiantown Gap is on Biddle Drive then Quartermaster Road and back to Fisher Avenue. There will be limited handicapped parking at IGNC itself.

The Avenue of Flags display on the Cemetery will be flown through Veterans Day Week. The Avenue of Flags is made up of casket flags that have been donated by Veterans' families. State, territories, and service flags will also be flown. Flag donations can be dropped off prior to the program.
